Riots Sparked by Rodney Gene King Verdict

Once again reality hits us in the face as the world witnesses the true nature of some American inner city dwellers. Riots, arson and looting were the order of the day after a predominantly white jury acquitted four white police officers of criminal charges in the now famous beating of Rodney Gene King.

The Klan's position on that beating incident was one of outrage. We questioned the apparent use of excessive force by agents of the beast regime. What many call further evidence of an evil racist, capitalist system we call a calculated abuse of power which, if allowed to continue, can be used just as effectively against white people as it has been used against blacks.

In a chain reaction, the mayhem spread from south-central Los Angeles north to Hollywood, east to San Bernardino and south to Long Beach. From there the violence spread to other cities throughout the country like Atlanta, where more than 20 people were injured during an exchange of bricks and tear gas with police. Sixty-seven people were also arrested at Clark Atlanta University after a bookstore was looted and a police car set ablaze.

Other cities hit by violence included: San Francisco, Las Vegas, New Rochelle, N.Y.,

Why? Because they are slaves to the system they hate so bitterly. It is that system that supplies many of their needs via welfare, ADC, food stamps and other social programs. Did you notice that the check cashing establishments were not burned, the post offices were not bombed. These people may be criminal but they're not stupid. They're not going to strike out at the hand that feeds them.

If we could convince both black and white people to vent their rage against the beast regime then we would have a force for the system to contend with.

These riots also point out the ease with which martial law can be established in America. King George, when asked what he intended to do about the violence, said: "I will use whatever force is necessary to restore order. I guarantee you this violence will end." RAGE OR RECREATION?

The question can now be asked, was it rage over the King verdict that prompted all this violence? In watching the faces of the rioters on television one would have to question their motives. They appeared smiling, laughing and waving as they

If these people were truly enraged over the verdict why wouldn't they target the system they claim is oppressing them instead of burning down their own neighborhoods? Why wouldn't they burn government agencies instead of stealing groceries?

DON'T CALL ME A MEMBER OF "THE HUMAN RACE"

The phrase "the human race" is not found in my Bible anywhere and so I must call into question its widespread use in our modern vocabulary. One of the first things a bleeding heart democratic socialist (liberal) will try to pound into your head is their belief that we are all members of "the human race." Well, let's define words here: according to Webster's a race is "a family, tribe, people, or nation belonging to the same stock," and, "a division of mankind possessing traits that are transmissible by descent and sufficient to characterize it as a distinct human type." Human is defined as, "of, relating to, or characteristic of man," and "having human form or attributes." Therefore, there can be no "the human race" per se, however, there could be "a human race" (meaning one out of several).

The idea behind the phrase "the human race" is to confuse you. We are not all members of "the human race." I'll take it a step farther and say I don't consider myself to be "human," or "of man." The majority of the members of the white race are "of God" and not "of man."

There is a group of people that I do consider "human" and they are known as mulattos or persons of mixed Caucasian and Negro ancestry. Scripture teaches us that "there is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death." (Proverbs 16:25) God is the author of segregation; man is the author of integration. Segregation is the way of life; integration is the way of death. The separate and distinct races are part of God's plan; "the human race" or amalgamated, mongrelized, homogenized race is part of man's plan.

Which will it be: the races of man or "the human race?" Life or death? Right or wrong? Good or evil?

The Last Medium of Exchange

We received a flier in the mail advertising a program called "The White Silver Plan." The flier states the following:

The White Silver Plan is a small business . . . to sell silver in small amounts to earn income to buy White Nationalists' publications . . . and make massive distribution to white race members across North America.

It goes on to say:

White activists will very soon abandon the idea of gaining control of the United States through the electoral process. The political process is completely controlled by the enemies of the white race.

The flier continues:

This plan is designed to allow supportive whites to purchased uncirculated .999 fine silver in circular pieces. Some of the reasons for owning silver are: (1) Silver is a hedge against inflation. (2) Silver is a means of preserving financial privacy. (3) Silver is a medium of exchange for money in the event of a currency collapse. (4) Silver is a commodity that can be easily moved from one geographical area to another geographical area.

Now we're not putting down the people behind this program. They may be very sincere white activists who are placing an idea into action. For that we give them credit. But, think about this for a minute: what good is silver when lead is going to be that LAST medium of exchange?

Think about it! When your paper notes are no good; when your plastic has failed you; you'll be able to purchase things with LEAD. For example, I'll give you three pieces of lead for that loaf of bread . . . or, I'll give you one piece of LEAD and take all your loaves of bread.

See how simple it is? LEAD is the last medium of exchange. Some people think we will be exchanging LEAD with the multinational troops of the New World Order. Not to worry; LEAD will be honored in every country and in every language. LEAD: THE LAST MEDIUM OF EXCHANGE.

RACIAL BALANCE

Remember friends, you can put a gorilla in a tuxedo but that doesn't mean you can take him to a dinner party. A recent poll asked: Is it important for schools to maintain a racial balance? The answer, of course, is YES!

It's important for the enemies of White Christian America.

- It's important for the international racketeers of the Marxist/Jewish conspiracy.
- It's important for the race-mixing lunatics and the debase integration fanatics.
- It's important for our government gone to Hell, as another step in the implementation of the principles of the Communist Manifesto.

STATEMENT OF POLICY

Let it be known by all that the Invisible Empire Knights of the Ku Klux Klan wishes to be on good terms with all other white organizations. It is in the interest of promoting good will that this statement of policy is made public—so all who read this will know in advance, our position on the following items:

- 1) Neo-Nazi uniforms, flags, emblems, armbands and other trappings—The Invisible Empire stakes its future on the precepts held as sacred by the original Klan. Christian values, constitutional government, honor, courage and resistance to tyranny are among them. Although, unfortunately compromised at times, it has been these precepts that allowed the Klan to survive every attempt to destroy it during the past 126 years. We are Klan! While there are many in our organization who admire the German Third Reich, and some who may collect relics from that era; the fact is that the history of the National Socialist German Workers Party has absolutely nothing to do with the historical roots of the Klan. We are Klan! Therefore, it is the policy of the Invisible Empire to exclude, from any public or private function, persons who insist on wearing neo-Nazi uniforms, emblems, armbands or other trappings; or those who insist on carrying Nazi flags.
- 2) Robes of other Klan organizations—The Invisible Empire takes pride in a uniform governments and the president has executive orders available to declare martial law at the stroke of a pen. If riots broke out across this country and could not be quelled, it is conceivable that martial law might be established nationwide.

We, of the Invisible Empire, realize that a myriad of groups exist in our movement today. It is not our intention to alienate others who are fighting for the same cause. We do, however, realize that there will be some who will be alienated, irritated and angered by this statement of policy. That's their problem.

RIOTS SEND A POWERFUL WARNING TO GOD'S PEOPLE

We can clearly see the implications of remaining in the major cities. It's time to get out if possible, at least get out of the major metropolitan areas. What would happen if the economy collapsed? What would happen if the food stamps and welfare stopped? The Klan believes our entire country would fall victim to a social breakdown, anarchy and violence, followed by the imposition of a police state and political repression.

The so-called "minorities" in this land are not endowed with the law of God written on their hearts, although some have come to understand it as witnessed by the black women and men who rescued the truck driver nearly beaten to death by rioters. Only God's people have His law on their hearts at birth (Jeremiah 31:33).

We need to be prepared as a people. We need to be well armed and stocked with ammunition. The 80-90% of assault rifle owners in California who refused to turn in their weapons after the recent ban are probably glad now they took such a stand. When civil order breaks down white people will not be able to count on the police to save them and whites may well have to deal offensively with federal troops who will be imposing repression under the guise of "liberation." There exists a God-given right to defend self and family regardless of any state or federal decrees that may be on the books of man.

WHITE YOUTH WILL SEE MORE CLEARLY

The events surrounding the King verdict

Black separatists agree that the riots again demonstrate there is no hope, no future except that the races separate completely. When asked about the King verdict, Osiris Akkebala, Chief Elder for the black nationalist group Pan-African International said, "I'm not surprised or disappointed."

BLACKS HAVE A POINT

When we retain the images of violence against whites we must also understand that blacks have been the victims of violence and oppression in this country. Whites have beaten, lynched and enslaved blacks for hundreds of years. Blacks have good reason to be enraged at their plight. What we must all come to understand is that further attempts to integrate and amalgamate the various races, diverse cultures and religions will never alleviate the problem, it will only further compound it. Separation is God's plan and it is the only way to end culture clash.

A LETTER OF WARNING

Following is an excerpt from a letter to Col. Jack Mohr. We have been warned and should not be surprised at what lies ahead:

I am an officer at the — — fire department. A few weeks ago my black firefighters had told me that this year we will be having a 'long, hot summer.'

After I received this information I had made inquiries to other sources to confirm the warning.

Sources in Georgia, Michigan, Indiana and Ohio had confirmed that the black population is preparing to riot this summer.

The Cleveland, Ohio police noted that blacks were buying pickup trucks. A car salesman told them that he had overheard (some) blacks say that they were mounting machine

WHITE YOUTH WILL SEE MORE CLEARLY

The events surrounding the King verdict may well be among the most positive things that could happen for our cause. It clearly documents the animal nature of many black inner city dwellers and it clearly documents the animal nature of the beast regime.

Many young whites today were not exposed to the Watts riots of 1965 and other conflicts of that period. They have been fed the lie of positive multiculturalism. But now they have witnessed the stark reality of social and cultural integration under a system that will always be racist by nature. Now their ideas will begin to change as visions of black hoodlums dragging whites out of their cars and beating them in the streets haunt their young minds. These images do more to promote the cause of separation than any propaganda the Klan could produce.

The BIBLE can become A NEW BOOK

Finally, a Bible Course that is different, exciting and timely. After just a few lessons, a Pastor wrote to say, "Boy is God opening my eyes!" A layman wrote saying, "I am learning things that I can't believe I was not taught in 50 years of Church School teaching and attendance." The Bible can become a new book to you, too. The following is the charge administered to new Klansmen of the original Reconstruction-era Ku Klux Klan. It was written by a Klansman for other Klansmen. It was a secret document; it was never intended for anyone outside the Klan; only a very, very few copies were made; it was presented orally; and all copies were supposed to have been destroyed when the original Klan disbanded. But somehow one escaped being burned. [It is also significant to remember that the original Ku Klux Klan was a purely Southern organization, and therefore this charge was never intended for anyone outside the South.]

Certainly it would seem that if anywhere there existed a pure, undiluted, unsweetened example of the Southerners' attitude towards a Negro, it would come from a den of the original Ku Klux Klan during the darkest, most desperate hours of Reconstruction, when the Southern white was fighting a last-ditch battle for its very racial life, when the Negro was viewed as foe and enemy, and when the Ku Klux Klan was the army fighting that foe.

The charge quoted verbatim:

"You have been initiated into one of the most important Orders which have ever been established on this continent: an Order which, if its principles are faithfully observed and its objects diligently carried out, is destined to regenerate our unfortunate country and to relieve the White Race from the humiliating condition to which it has lately been reduced in this Republic.

"Our main and fundamental object is the maintenance of the supremacy of the White Race in this Republic. History and physiology teach us that we belong to a race which nature has endowed with an evident superiority over all other races, and that the Maker, in thus elevating us above the common standard of human creation, has intended to give us over inferior races a dominion from which no human laws can permanently derogate. The experience of ages demonstrate that, from the origin of the world, this dominion has always remained in the hands of the Caucasian race; whilst all the other races have constantly occupied a subordinate and secondary position; a fact which triumphantly confirms this great law of nature. And it is a remarkable fact that as a race of men is more remote from the Caucasian and approaches nearer to the black African, the more fatally that stamp of inferiority is affixed to its sons, and irrevocably dooms them to eternal imperfectibility and degradation.

"Convinced that we are of these elements of natural ethics, we know, besides, that the government of our Republic was established by White men, for White men alone and that it never was in contemplation of its founders that it should fall into the hands of an inferior and degraded race. We hold, therefore, that any attempt to wrest from the White Race the management of its affairs in order to transfer it to the control of the black population, is an invasion of the sacred prerogatives vouchsafed to us by the Constitution, and a violation of the laws established by God himself; that such encroachments are subversive of the established institutions of our Republic, and that no individual of the White Race can submit to them without humiliation and shame.

"As an essential condition of success, this order proscribes absolutely all social equality between the races. If we were to admit persons of African race on the same level as ourselves, a state of personal relations would follow which would unavoidably lead to political equality; for it would be a virtual recognition of status, after which we could not consistently deny them an equal share in the administration of our public affairs. The man who is good enough to be our familiar companion is good enough also to participate in our political government; and if we were to grant the one there could be no good reason for us not to concede the other of these two privileges.

"There is another reason, Brothers, for which we condemn this social equality. Its toleration would soon be a fruitful source of intermarriages between individuals of the two races; and the result of this miscegenation would be gradual amalgamation and the production of a degenerate and bastard offspring, which would soon populate these States with a degraded and ignoble population and unfitted to support a great and powerful country. We must maintain the purity of the White blood; if we would preserve for it that natural superiority with which God has ennobled it.

"To avoid these evils, therefore, we take the obligation to observe a marked distinction between the two races.

"Our statutes make us bound to respect sedulously the rights of the colored inhabitants of this Republic, and in every instance, to give them whatever lawfully belongs to them. It is an act of simple justice not to deny them any of the privileges to which they are legitimately entitled, and we cannot better show the inherent superiority of our race than by dealing with them in that spirit of firmness, liberality and impartiality which characterizes all superior organizations. Besides, it would be ungenerous for us to exercise certain rights, without conceding to them, at the same time, the fullest measure of those which we recognize as theirs; and a fair construction of a White man's duty towards them would be, not only to respect and observe their acknowledged rights, but also to see that these are respected and observed by others."

We are told that the Ku Klux Klan and its ideas represent the darkest and worst elements of the Southern soul. This Klan lecture should, therefore, represent the darkest and worst attitudes which the Southern white man could possibly hold towards the Negro. And all other attitudes would, therefore, be "lighter" and "better."

The reader, Southern and non-Southern alike, would do well to ponder these things, and then evaluate the portraits of the Southern white man presented by television and other portrait-painting media. Such may reveal just how badly we have been lied about.

If the Negro is to ever get a true, square and objectively fair deal from any American, it will be from a Southerner. We alone do not falsely love, inordinately hate, or abnormally pity them. We do not want to make them over or exploit them; nor do we fear them. After three centuries, all we want to do is be rid of the problem.

SOUTH AFRICAN CONNECTION...

The situation in South Africa has changed for the worst. There has been a spat of bombings and the government has begun a witch hunt to convince the public that it is futile to protest. It's the usual war cliché—give up, resistance is useless.

The government relies heavily on propaganda to sway the masses and the white resistance simply cannot compete on their scale. The stronghold of nationalism in South Africa lies in the rural areas where there is still word-of-mouth communication. In the metropolitan areas, where neighbors and even families have grown apart, the propagandists control the masses.

It's amazing how a false sense of security can be created. The public doesn't mind watching de Klerk and his internationalist minions smile and socialize with the enemy. Roelf Meyer, the current Minister of Defense, has been photographed shaking hands with Joe Slovo, one time chairman of the South African Communist Party and one of the founders of the ANC's terrorist arm.

Many in the white resistance believe their own terror campaign might just work, believing the public must be shocked into reality. The big drawback is that such a campaign may serve to alienate some supporters. The current bombing campaign has only targeted "hard targets" like post offices and multiracial schools, where the attacks have occurred at night when no one is around. Not a single person has been injured to date.

At the moment the newspapers are predicting a blood-bath much like Beirut or Ireland. Unfortunately, the situation in South Africa is different. Wherever a guerrilla action is fought there must be a safe haven, a piece of territory under guerrilla control. The ANC conducted their bombing campaigns from neighboring territories where the governments were sympathetic to their cause. In true guerrilla style, they could attack by night and then retreat to their home base. There is a striking similarity between the position of the S.A. resistance and that of UNITA in Angola (a nationalist force fighting the government). UNITA has been very successful because of several factors, one of them being a large area under guerrilla control. In order for the S.A. resistance to secure such an area they would have to take on government forces in a conventional warfare situation. To do that they would have to convince military leaders in that particular area to join them.

That possibility is something the government realized some time ago. Any danger of a military takeover was averted by replacing nationalist commanders with soliders sympathetic to the liberal cause. The only remaining nationalist officers are weaklings who will never have the courage to take a stand. The dream of military support on any large scale is simply unrealistic.

One of the main setbacks lies in the ideas many hold on to here.

A subtle message from the Reconstruction era Ku-Klux.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?—The following mysterious "Take Notice" was found under our door early yesterday morning, having doubtless been slipped there the night previous. Will any one venture to tell us what it means, if it means anything at all? What is a "Kuklux Klan," and who is this "Grand Cyclops" that issues his mysterious and imperative orders? Can any one give us a little light on this subject? Here is the order:

They believe they will be able to ride off on their horses and live like the early Boer warriors. They fail to keep in mind the fact that the electronic age has shrunk the country to the size of a small town. There is no place for a hundred men on horseback to hide—not from helicopters and automatic rifles.

Others believe that the Afrikaners will win simply because they have always won. Forty years of government brainwashing has convinced them that the country became great overnight. They have a very simplistic view of history.

There are those who realize that there will have to be a fight but when push comes to shove, reveal themselves to be trigger-happy barflies. These are the people who hang around in bars with their friends, talking tough and telling everybody how they will "crush that bloody Mandela and all the cheeky Kaffers." People like this are not needed, for not only are they no good in a real fight, but they create a bad image.

All these are good people who mean well but they differ too much from the type of fighter South Africa needs. To resist a strong government such as exists in South Africa, an army is needed in the mold of the IRA: a few hundred men and women who are sophisticated warriors, people who can think on their feet and have access to modern weapons systems. This is a sore point—the S.A. resistance simply cannot expect a large

This is a sore point...the S.A. resistance simply cannot expect a bunch of undisciplined weekend soldiers armed with single shot rifles, shotguns and handguns to take on some of the toughest government forces on the continent.

On the short term, the aim is to get the people involved; to bring across the message that they too are mixed up in the fight; to understand that they are not witnessing a television show about the IRA or the ETA, but it is a real situation in their own neighborhoods.

At the moment the resistance is armed with faith, paper, and good intentions. The next step is to trust in God and see what happens.

Many are extremely rare and most are appearing for the first time in a unique collection of photos, illustrations, and demographics, covering the period of the birth of the Ku Klux Klan in 1866 through its revival in 1915 and its second disbandment in 1946.

W. Lee Ackridge is the nation's foremost authority on the history of the Ku Klux Klan. In compiling this book, Mr. Ackridge used only those pictures and illustrations which accurately represent the KKK from a purely historical standpoint.

This book is a must for history buffs and klan enthusiasts. Students will find this book a bonanza for research on the reconstruction era and the Ku Klux Klan organization.

CLOISONNE: This ancient art of enamelling (not paint) was developed in China. The process is a delicate and time-consuming event which results in some of the finest workmanship known throughout the world. Many of our jewelry items are executed in Cloisonne. All of our Blood Drop symbols are manufactured in this process for our jewelry items.

Pictorial History of the Ku Klux Klan

Now $5.00

The book that you have been waiting for! The pictures in this book represent many years of searching and collecting from every section of the nation. Many are extremely rare and most are appearing for the first time in a unique collection of photos, illustrations, and demographics, covering the period of the birth of the Ku Klux Klan in 1866 through its revival in 1915 and its second disbandment in 1946.

W. Lee Ackridge is the nation's foremost authority on the history of the Ku Klux Klan. In compiling this book, Mr. Ackridge used only those pictures and illustrations which accurately represent the KKK from a purely historical standpoint.

This book is a must for history buffs and klan enthusiasts. Students will find this book a bonanza for research on the reconstruction era and the Ku Klux Klan organization.

NEWS RELEASE

The following is a reprint from The Center for Action

Colonel James "Bo" Gritz, America's most decorated Green Beret commander of the Vietnam War and real-life role model for the "Rambo" movies series, recently returned from the Shan province of Burma where he had been searching for prisoners of war (POW's). Although he did not return with any POW's, he did bring back evidence of high U.S. government corruption in the drug trade and also a signed and sealed offer from General Khun Sa to stop the annual export of 2,200 metric tons of heroin.

General Khun Sa is the drug overlord of the Golden Triangle in Southeast Asia which produces 90% of the world's heroin and opium. The General's proposal, contained in a four page document, which Colonel Gritz has sent to all radio stations and newspapers in America, entails the elimination of the poppy fields in the Golden Triangle. This in return for some minimal U.S. foreign aid in the establishment of a substitute crop for the eight million Shan people. With evidence of high government corruption in the drug trade, Colonel Gritz fears Khun Sa's offer is being ignored and stonewalled. To prevent this and what the Colonel says could be another NO-WIN-WAR called the War on Drugs, he and other citizens have formed The Center For Action, 711 Yucca Street, Boulder City, Nevada 89005 (phone 1-800-634-3494).

Colonel Bo Gritz first met Khun Sa in 1986 while on a White House sanctioned mission to verify the presence of U.S. POW's in the Golden Triangle. The Colonel says he did verify that POW's were still being held in Laos and Vietnam, but claims his efforts to bring some out and home were thwarted at the last minute by forces emanating from within our own U.S. government.

The existence of corrupt, top U.S. officials would also explain the opposition Gritz faced when he returned from the Golden Triangle in 1987 and first brought word of Khun Sa's offer to official Washington channels. The offer got nowhere. Gritz and his team were threatened by their superiors to keep their mouths shut, to forget what they had heard "or you're going to hurt the government."

Being a man who does not confuse love of country with love of its government, Gritz refused. He was subsequently indicted on passport violations—by the very government which had issued the false passport in the first place to enable him to carry out his mission in search of POW's. Another team member, Scott Weekly, was sent to the federal prison in Lompoc, California, on a similarly trumped-up charge.

Although Gritz persisted in telling the story in 1987 and '88, he was stonewalled at nearly every turn. In the spring of 1989 Gritz was acquitted. He then returned to the Shan province of Burma to meet once again with Gen. Khun Sa—this time without the blessing of the U.S. Government.

Moreover, this time Gritz brought back with him two items to help ignite action on this front in the war on drugs: (1) the "Proposal for Eradication of Opium from the Shan State 'Golden Triangle'" and (2) a videotape of Khun Sa appealing to America for help in legitimizing the Shan economy, and which witnesses the actual signing of the document by Khun Sa and the other members of the TRC (Tai Revolutionary Council), the free Shan government in exile, and by their Buddhist abbot.

Gritz reports that in addition to stopping the heroin traffic from the Golden Triangle, "Khun Sa would also disclose the identity of every U.S. government official he had dealt with, officials he claims had been his best customers for the past 20 years."

Still smarting from official rejection and stonewalling in 1987 and '88, Gritz is determined to inform his fellow citizens of the treachery of certain U.S. officials and to stir the public to demand acceptance of Khun Sa's proposal.

"It's a win-win situation," stated Gritz. "Here we have an opportunity to win a major battle in the war on drugs, and at only a tiny fraction of the cost our government is now proposing to spend on it. It would be the height of stupidity not to accept Khun Sa's offer."

In order to assist individual citizens and groups to do more than spot bumper stickers urging "Just Say No", Gritz and some friends and supporters have organized The Center For Action. The Center For Action is asking help from American citizens and asking each to contact their Senator and Congressman requesting that General Khun Sa's offer be acted upon by Congress. Gritz will send Khun Sa's proposal and supporting documents for free.

"I know to some it might sound unrealistic," said Gritz, "but we've simply got to get serious about it. The 'Just Say No' campaign reminds me of President Gerald Ford's 'Whip Inflation Now' button and has been about as equally effective."

As just one example that the government's war on drugs has been a failure, Gritz cites a General Accounting Office study, as reported by the Washington Post's news service that "(d)espite more than $100 million in funding over the past four years, U.S. anti-drug efforts in Colombia and Bolivia have been entirely ineffective and the cultivation of drug crops has increased dramatically in both countries. . ."

Asked how "The Center For Action" would differ from other anti-drug efforts, Gritz responded: "Well, our first task is to help generate enough grass roots support to cause our elected officials in Washington to take action on Khun Sa's offer. If that exposes some rats and it takes another Watergate-style scandal in Washington to clean out the corruption, so be it," said Gritz.

"It's clear from my attempt two years ago to go it alone through official channels that it's going to take an aroused and informed citizenry—that's you and me and the other guy—to each do our part if we're going to win this war," Gritz asserted.

The sudden withdrawal of former Assistant Secretary of State Richard Armitage's nomination to be President Bush's Secretary of the Army was due to the fact that he would have faced some very probing questions about his activities in such matters as arms and drug smuggling by a Senate committee, according to Gritz, "and that was brought about by an aroused citizenry. We need to work in that direction to sweep America clean of drugs and drug dealers no matter how high up in government the criminals may sit."

POISON IN OUR DRINKING WATER

"My son, attend unto my wisdom, and bow thine ear to my understanding; Drink waters out of thine own cistern, and running waters out of thine own well. Let thy fountains be dispersed abroad, and rivers of waters in the streets. Let them be only thine own, and not strangers' with thee." (Proverbs 5:1, 15, 16 and 17 emphasis added)

Could it be the author of this passage was forewarning us to have our own source of water? As the prophets have written that our land would be polluted in these end times (Zephaniah 3:1 and others), isn't it interesting that they could write of pollution yet they had no knowledge of chemicals, pesticides and herbicides? Most of our agricultural states have ground water that is so polluted the people have been advised not to drink it. Of course there are spiritual forms of pollution evident today, but we will limit this article to one of the physical pollutants—the addition of sodium fluoride to drinking water.

The addition of fluoride and fluorine to the drinking water of various cities nationwide constitutes a serious health danger to those inhabitants. Fluorine is a naturally occurring, pungent, corrosive and an extremely reactive gaseous element. It is usually complexed with sodium or calcium. By itself it is used to etch glass, but it does not occur in large enough natural quantities to be a problem. However, man has taken it upon himself to artificially introduce fluoride and fluorine to water supplies, add it to toothpaste and food supplements. When we ingest it in our water, it travels into the blood stream. While in the blood, it often exists in a state known as a "free radical." Free radicals are chemicals that can combine with other elements to form a new compound. Fluoride and fluorine combine with our body's enzymes which are found in our cells. In fact, scientists conduct lab tests in which fluorine is combined with enzymes to demonstrate what happens when these enzymes are not active. All bodily functions are dependent upon enzyme function, so inhibiting these actions could be detrimental.

Fluorine and fluoride afflict the enzymes of the brain and that is why, in the past, it has been used in mental institutions and prisons to tranquilize and pacify inmates. Could it be that the good men in this country have been unknowingly tranquilized and are therefore unable to speak out against corruption?

The Bible admonishes us to come out of Babylon and be not partakers of her sins. Could Babylon represent the cities? Was not Babylon likened to cities such as Sodom and Gomorrah in Jude, verse 7? In the last 100 years, why has there been such a migration from the "land" to the "cities?" Could it be that it is better and easier to control the sheep in pens rather than when they are scattered? Remember, the lure to get our people to migrate off the land has been the lure of money. Doesn't the Bible say the love of money is the root of all evil (1 Timothy 6:10)?

In 1986, the level of fluoride added to our drinking water was raised from one part per million (ppm) to four ppm, in spite of scientific literature showing that at this level health risks occurred. Dental and skeletal fluorosis has been seen at these levels, and the dental and bone loss they claim they are trying to prevent, they are causing. Science News, 5/25/91, states, "Women over 55 who drink highly fluoridated water are more prone to fractures." They quote the Journal of Epidemiology, 4/1/91, "... but postmenopausal women drinking the

They are causing health problems all in the name of “doing good.” You don’t suppose they are purposely trying to generate more revenue for the AMA, “American Murderers Association,” the aluminum industry, or the health industry, do you?

When you cook food in fluoridated water, or when you make coffee with it, the steam that is produced concentrates this poison even further. Does the establishment ever warn you of this? Why do we need fluoridated water to flush the toilet, wash the car, water the lawn or do the laundry?

In conclusion, the author of this article is of the opinion, which is supported by countless scientific facts, that “The Thief comes only to steal, and kill, and destroy; . . .” (John 10:10), and sodium fluoride is one of “their” tools. Links have been established to sodium fluoride causing cancer, MS, arthritis, birth defects and kidney failure. Avoid it, avoid it, avoid it! I believe those promoting this substance abuse are criminally guilty of nothing short of mass murder.

There are measures which help neutralize some of the adverse effects if you are exposed. The most important of these is prayer. Use those compounds known as Sodom and Gomorrah in Jude, verse 7? In the last 100 years, why has there been such a migration from the "land" to the "cities?" Could it be that it is better and easier to control the sheep in pens rather than when they are scattered? Remember, the lure to get our people to migrate off the land has been the lure of money. Doesn't the Bible say the love of money is the root of all evil (I Timothy 6:10)?

In 1986, the level of fluoride added to our drinking water was raised from one part per million (ppm) to four ppm, in spite of scientific literature showing that at this level health risks occurred. Dental and skeletal fluorosis has been seen at these levels, and the dental and bone loss they claim they are trying to prevent, they are causing. Science News, 5/25/91, states, "Women over 55 who drink highly fluoridated water are more prone to fractures." They quote the Journal of Epidemiology, 4/1/91, ". . . but postmenopausal women drinking the higher fluoride water faced more than double the fracture risk of their counterparts in the comparison community." Isn't that something? They are causing health problems all in the name of "doing good." You don't suppose they are purposely trying to generate more revenue for the AMA, "American Murderers Association," the aluminum industry, or the health industry, do you?

When you cook food in fluoridated water, or when you make coffee with it, the steam that is produced concentrates this poison even further. Does the establishment ever warn you of this? Why do we need fluoridated water to flush the toilet, wash the car, water the lawn or do the laundry?

In conclusion, the author of this article is of the opinion, which is supported by countless scientific facts, that "The Thief comes only to steal, and kill, and destroy; . . ." (John 10:10), and sodium fluoride is one of "their" tools. Links have been established to sodium fluoride causing cancer, MS, arthritis, birth defects and kidney failure. Avoid it, avoid it, avoid it! I believe those promoting this substance abuse are criminally guilty of nothing short of mass murder.

There are measures which help neutralize some of the adverse effects if you are exposed. The most important of these is prayer. Use those compounds known as "anti-oxidants" which are Vitamin C, E, and selenium. I repeat, go out of your way to avoid it. Drink water from your own well if the quality is good. Distill your water if you live in the cities (but add a bit of sea salt to it as pure distilled water is not good in the long run). Use good bottled water.

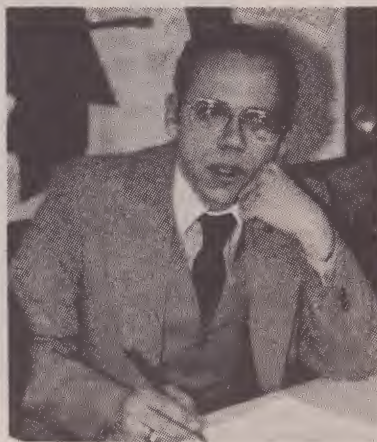

How long, O Lord, will this be in our land?

To read more of the disgusting facts about fluoridation, we refer you to an excellent book entitled, Fluoride: The Aging Factor by Dr. John Yiamouyiannis. An excellent article entitled, "Fluoridated Again" by Judith DeCava appeared in the March/April 1991 edition of the Journal of The National Academy of Research Biochemists.

FRED LEUCHTER BANNED FROM BRITAIN

HOME SECRETARY KISSES JEWISH BOOTS

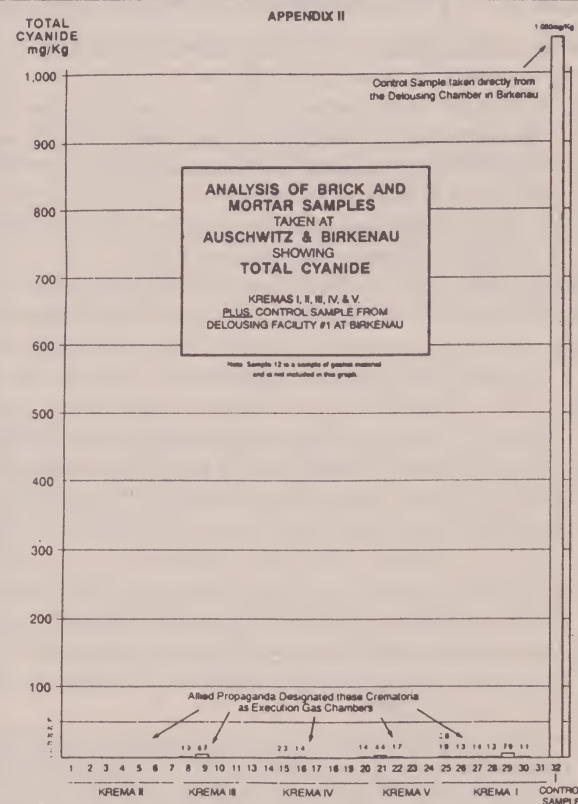

'GOVERNMENT' BY PRESSURE GROUP!

IF THE Home Secretary's ban on the entry into Britain of gas chamber expert Fred Leuchter was something of which the government could be proud, then you can be sure that the mass media would have given the decision considerable publicity. The fact that the only paper which gave the matter any coverage was the Jewish Chronicle (gloatingly, on its front-page) is evidence that the ban was considered to be such a shameful capitulation to Zionist pressure that the matter is best hidden from the general British public.

Fronting for the Zionist lobby was Westminster M.P. Sir John Wheeler. Were one to credit the statements he issued to the press one would believe that Britain was about to be visited by two neo-Nazi demagogues who were intent on holding Nuremberg-style rallies at which they would "legitimise hate attacks on the Jewish community".

The facts about Fred Leuchter and Dr. Robert Faurisson contradict Wheeler's defamations.

Independent forensic evidence

The above table summarises the most crucial evidence which Fred Leuchter brought back from Auschwitz. It illustrates the forensic analysis of samples taken from walls of alleged execution "gas chambers" and from the wall of the chamber which all agree was used to delouse clothes.

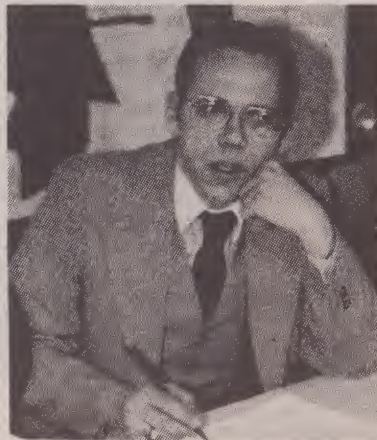

The independent analysis was conducted by Alpha Analytical Laboratories of Ashland, Mass., USA, whose services are used by U.S. Courts and law enforcement agencies. They were not told where the samples had come from nor the purpose of the study.

The column on the right of the table, going off the top of the grid, is the "Control Sample". It shows the quantity of cyanide in the sample taken from the chamber where CLOTHES were deloused with HCN gas.

The tiny little blips at the bottom of the table show the quantity of cyanide found in samples taken from the walls of rooms said to have been execution gas chambers where millions of PEOPLE were "exterminated" by HCN gas.

If the 'Holocaust' story was true, the heights of the 'Clothes Gas Chamber' column and the 'People Gas Chamber'

The facts about Fred Leuchter and Dr. Robert Faurisson contradict Wheeler's defamations.

Fred Leuchter is a member of no political party or group. He is head of an engineering firm which designs and builds execution equipment for American prisons. Because he is the world's leading authority on gas chambers he was asked to act as an expert witness in the trial in Canada of a man who had distributed a book which denies the truth of the 'Holocaust' legend. Prior to his involvement in this case it never occurred to him to question the truth of the 'Holocaust' story.

Leuchter took a team of experts to Auschwitz and other "Death Camps" and surveyed the "gas chambers". Close observations of these facilities, plus a forensic report on samples taken from them, enabled him to swear on oath that the rooms said to be been gas chambers could never function as such — and had never done so.

His courtroom evidence and the lectures he has given on the subject subsequently have all been entirely scientific and totally devoid of polemic, let alone agitational propaganda. The suggestion that a lecture by this man at a private seminar would constitute the slightest danger to public order is grotesque. This ban becomes an outrage when it is remembered that the Home Secretary permitted the 'The Rev.' Al Sharpton to visit Britain recently, and provided him with police protection whilst he engaged in racist street provocations.

Dr. ROBERT FAURISSON was born at Shepperton, near London in 1929 to a French father and a Scottish mother. He maintains dual French-British nationality and is thus not subject to a Home Secretary's banning order.

After a short period teaching at the Sorbonne (where he obtained his doctorate in 1972) he became Associate Professor of French Literature at the University of Lyons-2. His particular relevance to the 'Historical Revisionist' movement is that he specialises in the appraisal and evaluation of texts and documents. Dr. Faurisson is fully familiar with Fred Leuchter's evidence — and many other aspects of the Historical Revisionist case. His lecture is sure to be the most informative and stimulating.

CONCLUSIONS AFTER 30 YEARS OF RESEARCH BY REVISIONIST AUTHORS:

1. The Hitler "gas chambers" never existed.
2. The "genocide" (or "attempted genocide") of the Jews never took place. In other words, Hitler never gave an order—nor permission—that anyone should be killed because of his race or religion.
3. The alleged "gas chambers" and the alleged "genocide" are one and the same lie.
4. This lie, which is largely of Zionist origin, has made enormous political and financial fraud possible, whose principal beneficiary is the state of Israel.
5. The principal victims of this fraud are the German people (but not the German rulers) and the entire Palestinian people.
6. The enormous power of the official information services has, thus far, had the effect of ensuring the success of the lie and of censoring the freedom of expression of those who have denounced the lie.
7. The participants in this lie know that its days are numbered. They distort the purpose and nature of the Revisionist research. They label as "resurgence of Nazism" or as "falsification of history" what is only a thoughtful and justified concern for historical truth.

IS GOD A RACIST?

"You are to keep My statutes. You shall not breed together two kinds of your cattle; you shall not sow your field with two kinds of seed..." (Lev. 19:19)

God forbids indiscriminate crossbreeding of animals and plants. He opposes mongrelization. Has He not also forbidden the crossbreeding and mongrelization of the races of man, His great creation?

In the days of Noah, God brought forth a great flood to destroy mankind because of his sins. What was the great sin committed by man that caused God to destroy all but Noah and his family? The Bible describes miscegenation and mongrelization (Gen. 6:1-13).

Abraham ordered his servant to go to the land of Abraham's kindred to get a wife for his son Isaac so that his son would not commit the sin of miscegenation by marrying a Canaanite (Gen. 24:1-4).

Esau brought grief to his parents by marrying outside his race when he married a Hittite (Gen. 26:34-35). This sin contributed to Esau losing his birthright to Jacob. Jacob, on the other hand, chose to marry within his own race and went to the land of his forefathers to find a wife. He followed his father's instructions not to marry a Canaanite (Gen. 28:1-2, 6-7).

Jacob's sons, Simeon and Levi, slew the Hivites because a Hivite prince had sex with their sister, Dinah, and because the Hivites offered to intermarry with the Hebrews. They slew the Hivites because of race not religion. The Hivites had offered to adopt the Hebrew religion. The men killed by Simeon and Levi were circumcised. (Gen. Chap. 34).

Moses told God that he and the Israelites would segregate themselves from all other people (Exod. 33:16). God responded by commanding the Israelites to rid Palestine of its inhabitants and not to intermarry with them or worship their false gods (Exod. 34:10-16, Deut. 7:1-4). God told the Israelites that He had separated them from mongrelization.) As a result of this sin, they were forced to serve a foreign despot (Judg. 3:5-8).

After Ezra had arrived in Jerusalem, he was informed that Israel was guilty of a great abomination. They had not segregated themselves. Instead they had integrated with the inhabitants of that area and had intermarried with them. The religious leaders were among the worst offenders. (Ezra 9:1-2) Ezra was devastated by this news and cried unto God his shame (Ezra 9:3-15). He recited God's prohibition against miscegenation (Ezra 9:12). He identified miscegenation as rebellion against God's laws (Ezra 9:14) and as a sin (Ezra 9:15, 10:2, 10). Ezra's solution was for the men of Israel to separate themselves from their alien wives and to send them and the children born as a result of these immoral mixed marriages away (Ezra 10:3-5, 11-19). (These wives and children were divorced and sent away because of race and not because of religion. No exception was made for any who were worshippers of Jehovah. No Israelite was sent away because he worshipped a false god. Race, not religion, was the issue.)

Ezra read the law to the people of Israel (Neh. 8:1-8). The Israelites responded by segregating themselves from the rest of the people in the land and vowing not to intermarry with them (Neh. 10:28-31).

The writer of Proverbs warns against miscegenation: Prov. 2:16-19, 5:3-10, 6:24-26, 22:14, 23:27-35.

There are a number of other stories and warnings about the sin of miscegenation and its evil results in the aforementioned books and others. The writers of Kings, Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, Hosea, and Malachi discuss this sin. (Why did interracial marriages lead the Israelites to all distinction among the various races, peoples, and nations involved. Obviously, God did not and does not intend for the races of mankind to mix.

God made "every nation of men to dwell on all the face of the earth, having determined their appointed seasons, and the bounds of their habitation" (Acts 17:26). God "separated the sons of Adam" and "divided to the nations their inheritance" (Deut. 32:8). God is the one who made mankind into the various races, segregated them, and assigned them their bounds. He segregated the races and separated them geographically to help man resist the sin of miscegenation by removing the temptation. Sinful man rebelled against God, His law, and His work. Man has chosen to integrate, to amalgamate, to mongrelize and to destroy the races of God's creation.

To return to the title of this essay, is God a racist? Who created the races? Who segregated and assigned the races their habitats? Who is the author of racial segregation? Who is the author of apartheid? Who made the races different and gave them different attributes? Where there is a difference, there is inequality. Where there is inequality, there is superiority and inferiority. Hence, who made one race innately superior, the very essence of racism, to all other races for a given attribute? The answer to all of these questions is God. Therefore, God must be a segregationist and a racist.

God told the Israelites that He had separated them from other people (Lev. 20:26). (What! God, a segregationist!) God told the Israelites "...the Lord doth put a difference between the Egyptians and Israel" (Exod. 11:7). (What! God, a racist!)

In His code of moral conduct for the priests of Israel, God ordered any priest who married to take "a virgin of his own people to wife" (Lev. 21:14). Thus, he forbade priests to marry outside their race.

When Balak, king of Moab, saw the Israelites entering his country, he became fearful that he would meet the same fate as the Amorites. He called Balaam to come and curse the Israelites. Balaam came; but instead of cursing the Israelites, he blessed them and foretold the fall of Moab. (Num. Chap. 23 and 24) Balak knew he could not defeat the Israelite in combat. Following Balaam's advice, he sought to subdue them by integrating with the inhabitants of that area and had intermarried with them. The religious leaders were among the worst offenders. Sin creates a barrier between man and God. It drives man away from God. The more it is practiced, the more man tries to run from God. Miscegenation is a continuous sin, and, therefore, those involved in an interracial marriage are continuously trying to hid from God.)

There are also prohibitions against miscegenation in the New Testament. In 1 Corinthians 6:18, Paul urges people to flee from interracial sex, for it destroys the body—hence, the race—and is, therefore, a sin. He also warns against this sin in 1 Corinthians 10:1-11, especially verse 8. Needless to say, God was not pleased with what he saw. Moses ordered the execution of those guilty of this sin. (Num. 25:1-5)

In his farewell address to Israel, Joshua admonished the Israelites not to commit the sin of miscegenation (Josh. 23:12-13). But they ignored Joshua. They proceeded to integrate into the various nations remaining in Palestine and to intermarry with these nations. (Integration always leads to racial intermarriage and amalgamation and Atlanta (KNS)—The Franklin, Georgia Klavern has taken the lead in literature distribution by passing out almost 5,000 copies of the Introduction to the Klan pamphlet at the Atlanta Speedway.

A spokesman for the Klavern said the idea was planted at the last national convention where all states were encouraged to target racing events for literature drives.

After a day in the sun passing out Klan material the Klavern members got together for a meal and some good fellowship realizing the axiom stated so well by J.B. Stoner, "It's fun fighting the enemies of our God and race."

No doubt, the Franklin Klavern will continue to flood their part of the state with good wholesome Ku Klux Klan material.

- He lives across the tracks in F-nic town.
- I F-nic-rigged my car until I could get it to a mechanic.

See how easy it is? You don't fight a war in 1992 using swords and shields. The tactics of the past have failed. We must change our tactics if we expect to succeed. You can start by changing your vocabulary. The enemy has done it to us and it's about time we do it to them.

YOUNG BLACK TEENS

A new rap group has emerged in the steady evolution of cross-culture and all things twisted. The name of this group is the Young Black Teens.

From the name, it would seem that this is just another groid rap group out to assault our ear drums. But surprisingly, they're not!

"... FOR AS WHEN A MAN
RISETH AGAINST HIS NEIGHBOR, AND SLAYETH
HIM, EVEN SO IS THIS MATTER. " (SAME AS MURDER)
DEUT 22:25,26

AND THOSE WHICH REMAIN SHALL HEAR
AND FEAR AND SHALL HENCEFORTH
COMMIT NO MORE ANY SUCH EVIL
AMONG YOU. DEUT. 19:20

In Isa. 26:9 we read, "When my judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness." We would encourage you to share this tract, concerning God's laws for society, with others.

After a day in the sun passing out Klan material the Klavern members got together for a meal and some good fellowship realizing the axiom stated so well by J.B. Stoner, "It's fun fighting the enemies of our God and race."

No doubt, the Franklin Klavern will continue to flood their part of the state with good wholesome Ku Klux Klan material.

The New Terminology

All the various racial epithets used to identify members of the alien races are now outdated. The terms Nigger, Coon, Spade, Jungle Bunny, Sambo, Wetback, Zipper Eye, Taco-Bender, etc., etc., are now combined and condensed into one simple term that can be used interchangeably. That term: "F-nics." In the 1950s we had called. Negroes have gone from colored to black to African-American to person to African descent. Then you have Hispanics, Vietnamese-Americans, and on and on. We say enough is enough. From now on we'll just call 'em all F-nics.

- Have you been having F-nic problems lately?
- The F-nics are restless tonight.
- He lives across the tracks in F-nic town.
- I F-nic-rigged my car until I could get it to a mechanic.

See how easy it is? You don't fight a war in 1992 using swords and shields. The tactics of the past have failed. We must change our tactics if we expect to succeed. You can start by changing your vocabulary. The enemy has done it to us and it's about time we do it to them.

YOUNG BLACK TEENS

A new rap group has emerged in the steady evolution of cross-culture and all things twisted. The name of this group is the Young Black Teens.

From the name, it would seem that this is just another groid rap group out to assault our ear drums. But surprisingly, they're not! All five members are apparently white, at least in reference to their skin color.

The names of these individuals are equally amusing: Skribble, Ata, Kam, Ron, Tommy, Never and First Born.

They refuse to reveal their ages, birth names or information about their lives. However, they recently revealed on the Joan Rivers Show that they've had several "brushes with the law."

Could it be that the Young Black Teens are really young Jews in disguise? We all know that the Jewish breed has historically been deceived about their ancestry. It would be equally interesting to find out what sort of brushes with the law they have had.
